Dear Mr. Newman:

Thank you for being so kind as to look at these old pieces of paper. I could not believe it when Jerry called and told me of your friendship.

I had color added to these pieces for more detail. The pictures turned out better than I expected. Also enclosed are a Chillicothe, Ohio and a The Corporation of Richmond note. I looked in the books I own and could not find "the Corporation" on any of the Richmond notes. However, my library is limited. Any help you can give me will be greatly appreciated.

Enclosed is an old multiplication table and it has lots of interesting writings on the reverse. The old leather purse did not copy very well.

I will be anxious to hear back from you. I am planning on attending the St. Louis Show in November.

Sincerely,

Darrell Abel

Dear Mr. Abel:

I received your color photocopies of notes you have. I will be glad to help you any way I can. We have all of these pieces in our collection.

The Virginia 1 Pound 1775 is the best one but the pieces are not joined perfectly and can be improved.

The Chillicothe item is in Haxby and is scarce.

The City of Richmond is a very common Civil War issue. The six North Carolina pieces are all badly battered and are not often found in nice condition because they were in circulation so long. If you want nicer colonial pieces we can exchange some of our nice duplicates of other issues for some of your North Carolina. We are not commercial.

All of the colonial pieces are detailed and valued in any book on the subject.

Enjoy the St. Louis show.

Cordially,
